

Forgiveness Vespers

Monday, 14/ 27 February – Our Venerable Father Auxentius; Tone 4

Priest: Blessed is our God, always, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages.

Reader: Amen.

O come, let us worship God our King.

O come, let us worship and fall down before Christ our King and God.

O come, let us worship and fall down before Christ Himself, our King and God.

PSALM 103

Bless the Lord, O my soul; O Lord my God, Thou hast been magnified exceedingly. Confession and majesty hast Thou put on, Who coverest Thyself with light as with a garment, Who stretchest out the heaven as it were a curtain; Who supporteth His chambers in the waters, Who appointeth the clouds for His ascent, Who walketh upon the wings of the winds, Who maketh His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire, Who establisheth the earth in the sureness thereof; it shall not be turned back for ever and ever. The abyss like a garment is His mantle; upon the mountains shall the waters stand. At Thy rebuke they will flee, at the voice of Thy thunder shall they be afraid. The mountains rise up and the plains sink down, unto the place where Thou hast established them. Thou appointedst a bound that they shall not pass, neither return to cover the earth. He sendeth forth springs in the valleys; between the mountains will the waters run. They shall give drink to all the beasts of the field; the wild asses will wait to quench their thirst. Beside them will the birds of the heaven lodge, from the midst of the rocks will they give voice. He watereth the mountains from His chambers; the earth shall be satisfied with the fruit of Thy works. He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and green herb for the service of men, To bring forth bread out of the earth; and wine maketh glad the heart of man. To make his face cheerful with oil; and bread strengtheneth man's heart. The trees of the plain shall be satisfied, the cedars of Lebanon, which Thou hast planted. There will the sparrows make their nests; the house of the heron is chief among them. The high mountains are a refuge for the harts, and so is the rock for the hares. He hath made the moon for seasons; the sun knoweth his going down. Thou appointedst the darkness, and there was the night, wherein all the beasts of the forest will go abroad. Young lions roaring after their prey, and seeking their food from God. The sun ariseth, and they are gathered together, and they lay them down in their dens. But man shall go forth unto his work, and to his labor until the evening. How magnified are Thy works, O Lord! In wisdom hast Thou made them all; the earth is filled with Thy creation. So is this great and spacious sea, therein are things creeping innumerable, small living creatures with the great. There go the ships; there this dragon, whom Thou hast made to play therein. All things wait on Thee, to give them their food in due season; when Thou givest it them, they will gather it. When Thou openest Thy hand, all things shall be filled with goodness; when Thou turnest away Thy face, they shall be troubled. Thou wilt take their spirit, and they shall cease; and unto their dust shall they return. Thou wilt send forth Thy Spirit, and they shall be created; and Thou shalt renew the face of the earth. Let the glory of the Lord be unto the ages; the Lord will rejoice in His works. Who looketh on the earth and maketh it tremble, Who toucheth the mountains and they smoke. I will sing unto the Lord throughout my life, I will chant to my God for as long as I have my being. May my words be sweet unto Him, and I will rejoice in the Lord. O that sinners would cease from the earth, and they that work iniquity, that they should be no more. Bless the Lord, O my soul.

The sun knoweth his going down, Thou appointedst the darkness, and there was the night. How magnified are Thy works, O Lord! In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, both now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Glory to Thee, O God. Thrice.

Priest: For unto Thee is due all glory, honor and worship; to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

Lord I Have Cried

Reader: In the 4th Tone: Lord, I have cried unto Thee, hearken unto me.

Choir: Lord, I have cried unto Thee, hearken unto me./ Harken unto me, O Lord./ Lord, I have cried unto Thee, hearken unto me;/ attend to the voice of my supplication,/ when I cry unto Thee./ Harken unto me, O Lord.

Let my prayer be set forth/ as incense before Thee,/ the lifting up of my hands/ as an evening sacrifice./ Harken unto me, O Lord.

Reader: Set, O Lord, a watch before my mouth, and a door of enclosure round about my lips.

Incline not my heart unto words of evil, to make excuse with excuses in sins.

With men that work iniquity; and I will not join with their chosen.

The righteous man will chasten me with mercy and reprove me; as for the oil of the sinner, let it not anoint my head.

For yet more is my prayer in the presence of their pleasures; swallowed up near by the rock have their judges been.

They shall hear my words, for they be sweetened; as a clod of earth is broken upon the earth, so have their bones been scattered nigh unto hades.

For unto Thee, O Lord, O Lord, are mine eyes, in Thee have I hoped; take not my soul away.

Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me, and from the stumbling-blocks of them that work iniquity.

The sinners shall fall into their own net; I am alone until I pass by.

With my voice unto the Lord have I cried, with my voice unto the Lord have I made supplication.

I will pour out before Him my supplication, mine affliction before Him will I declare.

When my spirit was fainting within me, then Thou knewest my paths.

In this way wherein I have walked they hid for me a snare.

I looked upon my right hand, and beheld, and there was none that did know me.

Flight hath failed me, and there is none that watcheth out for my soul.

I have cried unto Thee, O Lord; I said: Thou art my hope, my portion art Thou in the land of the living.

Attend unto my supplication, for I am brought very low.

Deliver me from them that persecute me, for they are stronger than I.

10 Bring my soul out of prison:

Choir: that I may confess Thy name.

TONE 4

I want to wash away with tears the record of my sins, O Lord,/ and through the rest of my life to please Thee by repentance;/ but the enemy deceives me and fights against my soul.// Before I perish utterly, save me, O Lord.

9 The righteous shall wait patiently for me/ until Thou shalt reward me.

If a man takes refuge from the tempest in this harbor,/ will he not be saved? / If in his agony he kneels before this house of healing,/ will he not be cured? / O Maker of all and Physician of the sick,// before I perish utterly, save me, O Lord.

8 Out of the depths have I cried unto Thee, O Lord;/ O Lord, hear my voice.

Wash me with my tears, O Savior,/ for I am defiled by many sins,/ Therefore I fall down before Thee:// I have sinned, have mercy upon me, O God.

7 Let Thine ears be attentive/ to the voice of my supplication.

I am a sheep of Thy spiritual flock,/ and to Thee I flee for refuge, O Good Shepherd./ I have gone astray, O God:// seek me and have mercy upon me.

Reader: In the 2nd tone:

6 If Thou shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, O Lord, who shall stand?/ For with Thee there is forgiveness.

Let us all make haste to humble the flesh by abstinence,/ as we set out upon the God-given course of the holy Fast;/ and with prayers and tears let us seek our Lord and Savior./

Laying aside all memories of evil, let us cry aloud:/ We have sinned against Thee, Christ our King;/ save us as the men of Nineveh in days of old, // and in Thy compassion make us sharers in Thy heavenly Kingdom.

5 For Thy name's sake have I patiently waited for Thee, O Lord; my soul hath patiently waited for Thy word,/ my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

When I think of my works, deserving every punishment,/ I despair of myself, O Lord./ For see, I have despised Thy precious commandments,/ and wasted my life as the Prodigal./ Therefore I entreat Thee:/ cleanse me in the waters of repentance,/ and through prayer and fasting make me shine with light,/ for Thou alone art merciful; abhor me not, // O Benefactor of all, supreme in love.

4 From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch/ let Israel hope in the Lord.

Let us set out with joy upon the season of the Fast,/ and prepare ourselves for spiritual combat./ Let us purify our soul and cleanse our flesh;/ and as we fast from food, let us abstain also from every passion./ Rejoicing in the virtues of the Spirit may we persevere with love,/ and so be counted worthy to see the solemn passion of Christ our God,/ and with great spiritual gladness // to behold His holy Pascha.

Reader: In the 4th Tone:

3 For with the Lord there is mercy, and with Him is plenteous redemption;/ and He shall redeem Israel out of all his iniquities.

TONE 4

Showing forth an increase of asceticism, thou didst receive from God/ an outpouring of spiritual gifts to heal infirmities and dispel demons,/ O most blessed Auxentius, who art faithful to the calling of Christ,/ and full of divine grace and the power of the Spirit;/ wherefore, manifestly guided thereby, // thou hast attained unto the harbor of faithful.

2 O praise the Lord, all ye nations;/ praise Him, all ye peoples.

Having cleansed thyself in mind,/ thou wast enriched with the grace of healings and miracles;/ for thou didst shake off the weakness of the passions/ and the darkness and threefold waves of the flesh,/ and didst fashion splendid spiritual armor./ Wherefore, thou hast shone forth among the ranks of monastics,/ entreating Him Who loveth mankind // in behalf of those who praise thee.

1 For He hath made His mercy to prevail over us,/ and the truth of the Lord abideth forever.

Thou didst increase the talent entrusted to thee, O all-wise one;/ and having richly worked the soil of thy soul/ and sown it with tears, thou dost now reap in joy,/ O father, truly harvesting manifold joy and consolation./ Wherefore, as one who hath boldness before the Master,/ entreat Him in behalf of those who hymn thee, // O God-bearing Auxentius.

Reader: Glory in the 8th Tone:

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

The pure wisdom of the Holy Spirit which dwelt within thy heart/ showed thee to be a dread tormentor of the spirits of wickedness,/ O most blessed and venerable father Auxentius,/ and not only one awesome,/ but also a healer of hidden ailments./ Wherefore, having acquired boldness before God Who loveth mankind,/ by thine unceasing supplication // free us from the passions of soul and body.

Both now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

THEOTOKION

Taking up the cry of the Archangel Gabriel,/ let us say: Rejoice, O Mother of God,/ who gavest birth unto Christ // who bestoweth life upon the world!

Let Thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us, according as we have hoped in Thee. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, teach me Thy statutes. Blessed art Thou, O Master, give me understanding of Thy statutes. Blessed art Thou, O Holy One, enlighten me by Thy statutes.

O Lord, Thy mercy endureth forever; disdain not the work of Thy hands. To Thee is due praise, to Thee is due a song, to Thee glory is due, to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

From this point on the responses are sung to the Lenten melody. The vestments in the Church are also changed to dark colors at this point.

Choir: Lord, have mercy.

Stichos 1: Unto Thee have I lifted up mine eyes, unto Thee that dwellest in heaven. Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hands of their masters, as the eyes of the handmaid look unto the hands of her mistress, so do our eyes look unto the Lord our God, * until He take pity on us.

Thy grace has shone forth, O Lord,/ it has shone forth and given light to our souls./ Behold, now is the accepted time:/ behold, now is the season of repentance./ Let us cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light,/ that having sailed across the great sea of the Fast,/ we may reach the third-day Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ,// the Savior of our souls.

PRAYER OF SAINT EPHRAIM THE SYRIAN

Choir: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, both now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Lord have mercy. (Thrice)

Priest: O Master plenteous in mercy, O Lord Jesus Christ our God: Through the intercessions of our immaculate Lady Theotokos and Ever-virgin Mary; through the power of the precious and life-giving Cross; through the mediations of the honorable, heavenly Bodiless Hosts, of the honorable, glorious Prophet, Forerunner, and Baptist John; of the holy glorious, and all-praised apostles; of the holy, glorious, and victorious martyrs; of our holy and God-bearing fathers, (the patron saint of the temple); of the holy and Righteous Ancestors of God Joachim and Anna; of (the Saints of the day) and of all the saints: make our prayer acceptable; grant us the remission of our sins; shelter us with the shelter of Thy wings; drive away from us every enemy and adversary; make our life peaceful, O Lord; have mercy on us and on Thy world, and save our souls, for Thou art good and the Lover of mankind.

Choir: Amen.

Then follows the ceremony of mutual forgiveness. The priest stands beside the analogion, and the faithful come up one by one and venerate the ikon, after which each makes a prostration before the priest, saying "Forgive me, a sinner." The priest also makes a prostration before each "May God forgive thee. Forgive me." The person responds, "May God forgive thee" and receives a blessing from the priest.

Meanwhile the choir sings quietly the Irmoi of the Paschal Canon, or else the Paschal Aposticha. After receiving the priests blessing, the faithful also ask forgiveness of each other.

When all have asked forgiveness, the priest says:

Through the prayers of our holy fathers, O Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy on us.

And the Choir responds:

Amen.
